

North Louisiana Fly Fishers

Introduces

Caddo Fly Fishing Expo

When:

Friday July 18th -
Saturday July 19th

Where:

Jefferson Tourism
& Visitor Center
305 E. Austin
Jefferson, TX

What:

Friday –

Fly Tyer/Vendor
Setup - 1:00pm

Fly Tyer/Vendor
Meet & Greet Dinner
– 6:00pm

Saturday –

Fly Tyer/Vendor
Entry – 8:00am

Doors Open to Public
9:00am – 5:00pm

Join us for a delightful celebration of fly fishing, where enthusiasts and newcomers alike can come together to share their passion for this timeless sport. Experience the beauty of nature as we gather by the water to enjoy various activities, including casting demonstrations, workshops led by expert anglers, and engaging discussions about the latest techniques and equipment. Whether you're looking to refine your skills or simply immerse yourself in the friendly atmosphere, there's something for everyone. Don't miss the chance to connect with fellow fishing aficionados, exchange stories, and create lasting memories. Bring your gear and your love for the outdoors—let's make this an unforgettable experience for all!

- A celebration of all things fly-fishing! Fly tying demonstrations, fly tying lessons, casting instructions, kayak fishing tips and gear.
- Try your hand at fishing beautiful Big Cypress Bayou right across from the Jefferson Tourism and Visitor Center. Just steps away from the event!
- Come for the day or spend the weekend. There is plenty to do in Historic Jefferson!

Whether you choose to visit for the day or spend the entire weekend, Historic Jefferson offers an array of exciting activities and experiences. You can unwind at charming bed and breakfast accommodations that provide a cozy retreat. For the adventurous, explore the eerie allure of haunted buildings, where intriguing stories from the past come to life. Nature enthusiasts can enjoy serene walking trails that wind through picturesque landscapes, perfect for leisurely strolls or invigorating hikes. With its rich history and vibrant atmosphere, Jefferson is an ideal destination for anyone looking to escape and immerse themselves in the charm of a bygone era.